Suite Dreams

The perfect milieu for a wedding—and a mini-moon after the guests have gone

BELMOND EL ENCANTO

The recently renovated Belmond El Encanto overlooking Santa Barbara welcomes newlyweds with its Celebration Package, featuring a bottle of El Encanto Cuvée, chocolate-covered strawberries and a stay in one of the hotel's bungalows or suites (the Wishing Well Suite has a fireplace and a private, bougainvillea-enveloped terrace). Plus, check out the full-service spa for treatments included in the Couples Indulgence package—think massages and organic facials for two. elencanto.com.

SOLAGE CALISTOGA

Just off the Silverado Trail, the Howard Backen-designed Solage Calistoga offers a new "He Said, She Said" menu from Michelin-starred chef Brandon Sharp that allows newlyweds to customize their spread at the reception. Afterward, escape to one of the resort's charming cottages—complete with fireplaces and private outdoor hot tubs. Mr. and Mrs. embroidered pillowcases and a welcome bottle of Unity wine are waiting upon arrival, as is the property's bathhouse and therapeutic mud bar. solagecalistoga.com.

OJAI VALLEY INN & SPA

Slip out of the wedding gown and tux and into plush robes for a rejuvenating stay at the Ojai Valley Inn & Spa—complete with side-by-side massages at the 31,000-square-foot spa, numerous art and apothecary classes and intimate picnics packed to enjoy on the resort's hillside garden—or in one of the Spanish-style rooms. Options include the rose garden-surrounded Paseo Suite, two-bedroom Penthouse suites atop the spa, or the private five-bedroom Casa Elar estate boasting its own pool and spa along with a private massage room. ojairesort.com.
